

In the Father's Arms

In the Father's arms,
Where we are kept secure,
The love and grace and peace we know
Is ours forever more.
For in the Father's arms
We are embraced in Christ
And in the sweet beloved Son
The Father holds us tight.

In the Father's arms,
We relinquish all cares;
Our worries, fears, anxieties
And all that brings despair.
For in the Father's arms
We are embraced in Christ,
Who in the Spirit comes in love
To light our way at night.

In the Father's arms,
We lay down all our might,
Forego all power of earthly strength
And claims for all our rights.
For in the Father's arms
We are embraced in Christ,
Who is Himself God's greatest gift
Where love alone is life.

In the Father's arms,
There grace has forced its way,
For He has come with saving strength
To rescue we who'd strayed.
For in the Father's arms
We are embraced in Christ,
The Shepherd of our souls, whose blood
Has cleansed and brought new life.
