

The Resurrection Song

Oh what grace that cleanses me,
Oh what mighty victory,
Oh what peace, security—
Here in the cross I live.

Oh what pow'r displayed in death,
Oh what cry in Your last breath,
Oh what sin? There's nothing left—
Here in the cross I live.

*The living Christ I see,
A slave to Him, yet free.
Won by the cross eternally,
His grace abounds in me.*

Oh what love vast as the sea,
Oh what faith, my surety,
Oh what justice, Calvary—
Here in the cross I live.

*Though wretched I may be,
His Spirit dwells in me.
I live and breathe in liberty,
His grace abounds in me.*

Oh what life that carries on,
Oh what glories yet to come!
Sing the resurrection song—
Here in the cross I live.
